

Teamwork

Teamwork is a critical skill in the workplace and allows you to work well with others. It involves collaborating with others and reaching a consensus, promoting strong working relationships and maximising the individual strengths of team members.

